

Path to Medicine

1

POST-SECONDARY EDUCATION

BACHELOR'S DEGREE

3-4 years

Minimum number of credit hours

- MCAT
- CASPer
- Interview Application Submissions (personal statement/targeted supplemental activities)

2

UNDERGRADUATE MEDICAL EDUCATION

DOCTOR OF MEDICINE

3-4 years

1-2 years of course based work

2 years of clerkship rotations

- CARMS (Residency Application Process)
- Medical Council of Canada Licensing Exam

3

POSTGRADUATE MEDICAL EDUCATION

RESIDENCY TRAINING

2-6 years

(Depending on speciality)

- Certification Exams (CFPC/RCPSC)
- Provincial Registration of Independent Practice

4

FELLOWSHIP (Optional)

ADDITIONAL SPECIALITY TRAINING

- Annual Licensing/Provincial Registration and Health Authority Renewal

5

CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Life-long learning

Life-long learning and personal experiences that develop communication skills, empathy, service to others, critical thinking, collaborative skills, advocacy, professionalism, self-care/wellness.